To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. [REDACTED] has requested I provide this letter of recommendation supporting his petition to be granted amnesty for a crime he committed shortly after his eighteenth birthday. I am complying with his request with great pride and completely without reservation.

I was [REDACTED] principal at [REDACTED] during his years there, 1987-1990. [REDACTED] was a good kid who had a hard time maturing. He was known for doing mischievous acts, never actually doing physical harm to anyone or school property. He came from a good family who did their best to nurture him and steer him in the right direction. We all tried to "Save [REDACTED] from himself," but he was more interested in his dirt bike and having fun with his friends. Fortunately, [REDACTED] turned the corner a number of years ago and is now where we all knew he could be if he would only apply himself.

[REDACTED] is now a successful businessman and owns his own computer repair business. He is just one of the many individuals the amnesty law is intended to benefit. [REDACTED] is now a responsible citizen, married and the father of two children. I am extremely proud of him and I fully support the restoration of his rights.

Sincerely,
